MEMORANDUM FOR: CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS
VIA: DIRECTOR OF NAVAL INTELLIGENCE

SUBJECT: Control and Release of Navy Classified Matter

REFERENCES: (a) DNI, Conf. Ltr., OP-322H3, serial 08052P32, dtd 15 June 1950
(b) U.S.N. Security Manual for Classified Matter

1. Paragraph 3 of reference (a) notes that inter-library loan arrangements have been established between this Agency and certain offices of the Navy, and indicates that similar arrangements of this kind might be made with other Naval technical bureaus and activities.

2. Paragraph 9-31 (d) of reference (b) states that, "all disclosures of classified information outside of the Armed Services, other than those described in (a), (b), and (c)", (not applicable) "shall require the prior approval of the Chief of Naval Operations and shall be made only in the national interest. The Chief of Naval Operations may delegate this authority to meet specific situations, if such action is in the best interests of the Naval Service, and shall determine whether approved disclosures will be disseminated directly by CNO, or by a designated agency".

3. In order to assist the Director of Central Intelligence in carrying out the duties assigned to him by the National Security Act, in an expeditious, effective and efficient manner, it is requested that the Chief of Naval Operations, delegate to the Security Classification Control Officers of the below listed bureaus and offices of the Navy, and of the activities under their control, his authority to approve the disclosure to the Central Intelligence Agency of classified material, up to and including SECRET, produced by those bureaus and offices:

Office of Industrial Relations
Office of Naval Research
Naval Research Laboratory
Bureau of Aeronautics
Marine Corps
Bureau of Medicine and Surgery
